Vocabulary Quiz #11

Multiple Choice: For each word, circle the letter (a, b, c, or d) for the word that most closely matches the definition. Each multiple choice question is worth 1 point.

1. ambivalent

a. having good and bad feelings about something   b. not easily convinced   c. not having any strong opinion   d. believing you're the best

2. indifferent

a. having good and bad feelings about something   b. not easily convinced   c. not having any strong opinion   d. believing you're the best Fill-In: For each fill-in box below, fill in a word of your choice from previous week's words. Write the full definition and your own example of a sentence using the word properly. Your sentence must show that you know what the word means and it cannot be the same as someone else's sentence (don't use the example I gave you).

Each fill-in question is worth 3 points.
